((L-CD 2/23)) 11 People and animals on the farm

- Bob:* OK, you lot. Yes, that's right – I've got your breakfast here. Just a minute. Hey, not so loud, please – that doesn't help!
- Holly:* Look, Olivia – pigs!
- Bob:* Oh hello girls. I'm Bob. What are your names?
- Olivia:* I'm Olivia and this is my best friend Holly.
- Holly:* Do you live on the farm, Bob?
- Bob:* No, I don't. I just work here. But I live on the Isle of Dogs very near the farm, so it's easy to get here. I come to work by bike.
- Holly:* Do you come every day?
- Bob:* No, I don't. Other people work on the farm too, so the animals don't need me every day. But I always work on Saturdays. And I usually bring the pigs their breakfast.
- Olivia:* Isn't it very late for breakfast?
- Bob:* Yes, it is. But our pigs don't have lunch. They just have a BIG late breakfast. – Are you two alone here at Mudchute today?
- Olivia:* No, we're with my parents. They're at Pets Corner with my little sister Lucy.
- Bob:* Oh, right. Does your little sister like Pets Corner then?
- Olivia:* Yes, she does. She's crazy about the rabbits! But Holly and I want to see the other animals on the farm.
- Bob:* Do you like the pigs?
- Olivia:* Yes, I do. They're funny.
- Holly:* I love them! Hello pigs! Oh listen – they're very friendly.
- Bob:* Well, they aren't always so friendly. They don't say hello to everyone! But they like you.
- Olivia:* And they know their breakfast is here!
- Bob:* Yes, they do. Right, you lot. Your new friends Olivia and Holly can help me to give you your breakfast today. Is that a good idea, girls?
- Olivia:* Yes, that sounds like fun!
- Holly:* Wow, yes!
- Bob:* Good. Well, you can give them this, Olivia.
- Olivia:* Oh, it doesn't look very nice.
- Bob:* No, it doesn't. But the pigs like it. – And Holly, you can give them this, OK?
- Holly:* Yes, fine. Oh, it's really fun to work on a farm. I love it ...
