((L-CD 2/28)) 2 Asking the way in Greenwich

Tourist: Excuse me. Can you help me please? How do I get to Arches Leisure Centre from here?

Father: Hm, Arches Leisure Centre ... well, just go down King William Walk and turn left into Romney Road. Go down Romney Road, the leisure centre is on the right, opposite the Royal Naval College. It's very big!

Mother: Excuse me, but Arches Leisure Centre isn't there. But don't worry, I can tell you the way: Go down King William Walk and turn left into Romney Road. Then go straight on and turn right at Park Row. At the end of Park Row turn left into Park Vista. The leisure centre is in Park Vista, on the right. It's easy to find because there are always lots of children.

Son: I'm sorry, but I don't think that's right.

Mother: Really? But I'm sure it's the right place.

Son: Sorry, it isn't. But I know where it is: Go down King William Walk, turn left into Romney Road. Then go straight down Romney Road, past Park Row and go until Maze Hill. Now the leisure centre is on your right.

Father: I still think I'm right. Arches Leisure Centre is opposite the Royal Naval College.

Tourist: Oh, well thank you, but what's the right information now?
