

((L-DVD 7)) Video transcript: A trip to the country

(Car park)

- Marley:* Laura, I'm so happy you like geocaching too! Jinsoo doesn't come with me very often.
- Marley:* He doesn't really like it.
- Laura:* My friend Parule doesn't like it either. But I find it so exciting!
- Laura:* Look! I've already got three of these coins. There's four in total. I just need a red one now.
- Marley:* Hey, maybe we'll find it today!
- Mrs Thompson:* Come on, let's go!

(Café)

- Mrs Thompson:* So, meet me back here at four o'clock, OK?
- Marley:* OK Mum, great! Come on, guys!
- Laura:* See you later, Mrs Thompson!
- Jinsoo:* Bye!
- Mrs Thompson:* Have fun!

(Country path)

- Jinsoo:* So how does this work again?
- Marley:* This smart phone shows me where we are. And we use clues to help us find 'caches'.
- Jinsoo:* What's a 'cache'?
- Laura:* A 'cache' is a treasure. It could be a box with all sorts of things in it. For example, coins. Like these.
- Marley:* I think there's a 'cache' really close by! I think we need to walk fifteen steps in ... this direction.
- Laura/Marley/Jinsoo:* One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen.
- Marley:* There's a clue: "Besides some trees, you'll find me."
- Jinsoo:* That's easy!
- Marley:* Some caches are easy to find. But sometimes it's really difficult.
- Jinsoo:* A first aid kit. Wow ...
- Marley:* It could be useful. You never know.
- Jinsoo:* Do we just take it?
- Marley:* Yes. But then we have to put something else back in the box.
- Laura:* Now we write our geo-names in here, in the book.
- Jinsoo:* OK ...

Marley: There's a dog! And a sheep!
Laura: Hey! And a red coin!
